Stand Up and Speak Out Against Air Canada's Decision to Remove Tango Fares from Travel Agencies Channels

In the middle of the night on May 2, without warning, Air Canada removed their lowest fares from the Global Distribution Systems used by the travel industry, including Sabre, Galileo and Amadeus and their own agent Website.

Removing Air Canada Tango fares from the GDSs limits consumer information and choice, making it difficult and confusing for travelers to find the lowest fares, restricting travelers' buying options. It also limits the valuable and trusted service and support customers get from travel agents. Finally, the travel industry has worked hard to make the market as efficient as possible. Air Canada's unexpected decision undermines efficiency to the detriment of consumers and travel agents.

Air Canada's actions affect the whole of the travel industry – especially travel consumers – and we should all be up in arms. Major players within the travel industry, including the Association of Canadian Travel Agencies (ACTA), the American Society of Travel Agents (ASTA), the Canadian Corporate Travel Association (CCTA), the Business Travel Coalition (BTC) and others are coming together to ask Air Canada to reverse its decision. All members of this group believe that consumers should have full access to information, choice and support with respect to the purchase of their airline tickets.

By banding together, we gain strength and can show Air Canada that we will not accept their decision to limit consumers' choice, compromise market efficiency, and undermine travel agencies.

Together we call on Air Canada to immediately reverse this misguided, anti-consumer move and to once again put these important fares back into the systems that travel agencies use to serve their consumers in an efficient and cost-effective way.

Please sign below to show your support and to help us stand up to Air Canada's bullying tactics. Your signed form can be faxed (613-237-7052) or e-mailed to the attention of Christiane Théberge, Vice-President, Public Affairs, ACTA. We will make sure it reaches Air Canada.

Regroupons-nous pour dénoncer la décision d'Air Canada d'enlever ses tarifs Tango des systèmes de réservation des agents de voyages

Au milieu de la nuit du 2 mai dernier, sans préavis, Air Canada a enlevé ses plus bas tarifs des systèmes informatiques de réservations (SIR) utilisés par l'industrie du voyage, incluant Sabre, Galileo et Amadeus ainsi que de son propre site Internet réservé aux agents de voyages.

La vente des tarifs Tango exclusivement sur le site AirCanada.com limite l'information et le choix des consommateurs, rend plus difficile et déroutant pour les voyageurs de trouver les plus bas tarifs tout en restreignant leurs options d'achats. Cela limite aussi le service précieux et éprouvé et le soutien que les consommateurs obtiennent de leur agent de voyages. Finalement, l'industrie du voyage a travaillé fort pour se doter d'un marché le plus efficace possible. Cette décision surprise d'Air Canada vient miner l'efficacité au détriment des consommateurs et des agents de voyages.

La décision d'Air Canada affecte l'industrie du voyage en entier et spécialement les consommateurs de voyages et nous devrions tous protester fortement. Des acteurs majeurs de l'industrie se sont joint à l'Association canadienne des agences de voyages (ACTA), dont l'American Society of Travel Agents (ASTA), la Canadian Corporate Travel Association (CCTA), la Business Travel Coalition (BTC) et autres ont d'une même voix demandé à Air Canada de revenir sur sa décision. Les membres de ces groupes croient que les consommateurs devraient avoir un accès entier à l'information, le choix et le soutien des agents de voyage quand vient le temps d'acheter un billet d'avion.

Il est important de se regrouper et d'être solidaire, nous serons alors plus fort et pourrons montrer à Air Canada que nous n'acceptons pas leur décision de limiter les choix des consommateurs, de compromettre la rentabilité de notre marché et de miner notre efficacité.

Ensemble, nous demandons à Air Canada d'immédiatement revenir sur sa décision si peu judicieuse, anti-consommateur et de rendre à nouveau disponible ses tarifs Tango dans les systèmes que les agents de voyages utilisent pour servir leurs clients de façon efficace et rentable.

SVP signer plus bas afin de montrer votre appui et nous aider à dénoncer les tactiques brutales d'Air Canada. Votre formulaire signé peut être renvoyé par télécopieur (613-237-7052) ou par courriel à l'attention de Christiane Théberge, vice-présidente, Affaires publiques, ACTA. Nous nous assurerons qu'il parvienne à Air Canada.

1. ENSEMBLE TRAVEL

En tant que plus grand réseau au Canada (environ 2 475 agents au Canada), Réseau Ensemble exprime sa solidarité envers la communauté des agents de voyages en supportant la pétition de l'ACTA, qui réclame l'accès aux tarifs de Tango dans les systèmes GDS. Nous vous incitons à lire le document ci-dessus, rédigé par l'ACTA, de le compléter et de leur retourner.

[Translation] As the largest travel network in Canada (app. 2,475 agents in Canada), Réseau Ensemble wishes to express its solidarity towards the travel agent community by supporting ACTA's Call for Action to have Tango fares reestablished in the GDS systems. We urge you to read the document above, written by ACTA, and add your name to the list.
